SOME SOCIAL EVENTS

Which Occurred in the City During the

A very enjoyable event for the young people, friends of Master Dan Eric Juphet. was a party given by him to his young friends Saturday, July 13, at the home his mother, Mrs. Dan A. Japhet, 794 Jefferson street. At the appointed hour a happy party of girls and boys assembled at the home of the little host. After music, dancing and various games on the apacious lawo, refreshed at intervals by a delicious fruit punch, they all marched, led by Eric. and little Alice Kuthmann, into the dining room and parlor (thrown into one), where a table set for wixty was laden with all good things that delight children's hearts. a table set for every was laden with all good things that delight children's hearts. At every place each one found a gold or sliver cornucopia filled with sweets, and after leaving the tables cach, as they crossed the versods, tried their shill at the fish pend, but they did not have the proverbial luck of a fisherman; instead, with each pull got something which they carried home as a souvenir of, as each expressed as they left, "such a good time." Mrs. Dan Japhet was assisted in entertaining her son's little friends by her sisters, Mesdames Walter Schmidt, Louis Schneider and Miss Korse, also Mesdames I. Japhet, Gus Japhet, H. Eruts and the Misseys Menger, Veight and Herrmann of Branham Master Dan Eric's goests were: Ernest Japhet, Erns and Korse Schmidt, Curtis Japhet, Ramon Schneider.
